

Adult educator: Global education series

Tzedek is looking for people with an interest in adult education and social justice to develop an educational series.

Background

Tzedek is the UK Jewish community's response to extreme poverty. We work with some of the poorest communities in the world, regardless of race or religion, providing direct support to help local people so they can help themselves. Tzedek engages with and educates all sectors of the Jewish community on issues of global poverty, its causes, effects, and the Jewish obligation to respond.

We are looking for enthusiastic people to develop plans for an annual series of educational events addressing a variety of social action issues, which will be open to all Tzedek volunteers and aim to bring in
